

Day 1 – July 27: Arrival

● Afternoon

3pm: Introduction and presentation of meeting aims

3:30pm: Inaugural debate about actions of young people for peace

Pacifist commitment and values from the First World War to nowadays conflicts

4:45-5:45pm: Round table

- Stop/Eliminate nuclear weapons: humanitarian impact of nuclear weapons, analysis of the current positive dynamics of States since the conference on the humanitarian impact of nuclear weapons in Oslo, campaign ICAN: Presentation of approach and means of action
- agreement on conditions for an Iranian nuclear program: What are the perspectives for the region and for the elimination of nuclear weapons?
- The EU and the culture of peace: peoples getting closer and the Euro crisis

● Beginning of the evening

6pm: time to reflect together

7pm: Aperitif and assessment of the first day

8pm: Dinner

Day 2 – July 28

● Morning

9am – 10am: Topic I “Our common pacifist culture, which values do we share? What are their origins, their evolution, and their modern faces?” Focus on the big thinkers of peace, such as Gandhi, Thoreau, Tolstoi, Jaurès and a look at pacifist engagement of young people today.

Contributors (with reservation): Association Camps des Milles

Exhibition of pacifist figures of 1914

10am – 11:30am: Round table

- The culture of peace as new social pact enables the formation of a harmonious and democratic society which is solidly united
- What means of action are there for pacifists to spread their word? Exchange of experiences and formation of common projects
- Peace education: What principles and practices?

12:30pm: Lunch

● Afternoon

2 – 3:30pm: Round table

- Back to the Israeli-Palestinian conflict, engagement for peace at the core of a conflict: experiences of young Israelis and Palestinians
- Syria: What are the perspectives and challenges of the current situation?

Workshops: 3:45 – 5:45pm

- Journalism, radio, creation of video/photo
- Educate the culture of peace: preparation of activities for an afternoon with children of the local youth center
- Putting together of a flash mob

6 – 7pm: Assessment of the day; time to talk for reporters and draftsmen; The other participants get together at the statue of Jean Jaurès for a commemoration in the spirit of the culture of peace

- Beginning of the evening

7:15pm: International pacifist songs: the culture of peace

8pm: Dinner

Day 3 – July 29

- Morning

9-10am: Topic II “Two major problems for peace: the uneven development and the misuse of the responsibility to protect” The fight against economic and social inequalities as component for the constitution of peace. Disarm to develop.

The responsibility to protect is often used as justification to go to war. Focus on recent military interventions, analysis and alternatives

10 – 11:30am: Round table:

- Pacifism and Ecology
- Finding concrete alternatives for “humanitarian interventions”

12:30pm: Lunch

- Afternoon

2 – 3:30pm: Round table

- Scientific research diverted for military purposes (Lucas Wirf, INES)
- How to finance humanitarian needs before military expenditures? Where do we stand on the Millennium Development Goals? How about a Tobin tax on arms?
- When looking at the increase in military expenditures, can we talk about a new Cold War? What are the consequences of this build-up of arms? Is there another model? Who are the opposition forces (comeback on Mexico and Austria)? What is the place/role of young people in this process?

3:45 – 5:45: Workshops

- Theater forum or how to use the theater in order to improve debating
- Training of young people in forming a dialogue with respective politicians
- Workshops video/photos, radio, journalism

6 – 7pm: Assessment of the day

- Beginning of the evening

7:15pm: flash mob

8pm: Dinner

Day 4 – July 30

- Morning

9-10am: Topic III “Gender equality and feminist engagement: What are the major challenges for the 21st century?”

10 – 11:30am: Round table

- Women in conflicts; victims but also actors of peace.
- Gender equality: a preliminary condition for a peaceful society.
- Tolerance and the fight against the discrimination against LGBTs

12:30pm: Lunch

- Afternoon

2 – 3:30pm: Round table

- Racism, xenophobia, and nationalism: appraisal, analysis, researching solutions
- What have the flowers of the Arab Spring become ?
- Israeli-Palestinian conflict: Is peace possible? (examples of israeli-palestinian initiatives)

3:45 – 5:45 Workshops:

Activities with local children from the youth center.

Projection of the film: “l’Oiseau bonheur” for the children of the town and the participants.

Campaign of petition in town.

Workshops video/photos, radio, journalism

6 – 7pm: Assessment of the day

- Beginning of the evening

7:15pm: Peace party

This flash mob will remain the identifying and rallying sign of the network of youth pacifists.

Party and lanterns by the waterside.

Dinner

Day 5 – July 31 “Assassination of Jean Jaurès”

- Morning

9-10am: Brief restitution of the conferences, round tables, and workshops

10 – 11:30am: Coordination of upcoming campaigns, common goals, and future events/meetings

11:30-12:30pm: Assessment/feedback of the meeting